SCHEDULE FOR 1940

JANUARY 7

Nehalem Ridge—What better way is there to start the new year than to make a new trip. This is an easy hike and should afford a new view of Saddle Mountain. Leave Hildebrand's at 7:30 A. M. Estimated cost 50c. Leader—Reuben Jensen.

JANUARY 21

Saddle Mountain—We seldom are disappointed on our winter climb. Remember the beautiful snow and ice-laden trees of former years? You can't afford to miss this trip. Leave Hildebrand's at 7 A. M. Estimated cost 80c. Leader—Esther Girod.

FEBRUARY 4

Puget Island—You have looked down on the island from Clatsop Crest but how many of you have been on it? This trip can involve as much or as little hiking as the leader sees fit. Starting time is subject to change to fit ferry schedule. Leave Hildebrand's at 8 A. M. Estimated cost $1.00. Leader—Art Stangland.

FEBRUARY 16

Homecoming—Don't forget—it's a date. And the hike is back over the trail of memories of many an Angora trip. The committee in charge.

FEBRUARY 18

Neahkahnie Mt.—We have neglected the fabled mountain lately. Let's all go and hope we get to see that marvelous view from the summit. Leave Hildebrand's at 7 A. M. Estimated cost $1.25. Leader—Emil Granlund.

MARCH 2--3

Mt. Hood—This trip has been scheduled later in the hope of better snow conditions than in previous years. You won't regret this visit to Oregon's winter sports center. Leave Hildebrand's at 6 A. M. Saturday. Estimated cost $4.00. Leader—Mary Weaver.

MARCH 17

Mystery Trip—Sh-sshhh. Don't tell a soul but we heard that this year we are going to ndktmejdngk. Shall we help St. Pat celebrate? Leave Hildebrand's store at 7:30 A. M. Estimated cost—not over 40c. Leader—Who knows?

MARCH 31

South Jetty—Who has ever failed to enjoy this old favorite? It's so popular that if it isn't scheduled we make it anyway. Leave Hildebrand's at 8 A. M. Estimated cost 40c. Leader—Bill Barth.

APRIL 7

North Beaches—This is always an easy trip and do we have fun. Let us see what has been to the north jetty. Leave Hildebrand's at 7:20 A. M. Estimated cost $1.25. Leader—John Cornilsen.

APRIL 20--21

Sugar Loaf Sunrise Climb—Let's hope the weather is in our favor. To see the sun rise from the top of the mountain is a sight well worth the effort. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 P. M. Saturday. Estimated cost 70c. Leader—Ralph Horton.

MAY 5

Soapstone Lake—Few of us have seen this lake but most of us have heard so much about it. Why not all go? It's a bargain trip. The schedule committee has cut the price from $1.00 to 98c. Leave Hildebrand's at 8 A. M. Estimated cost 98c. Leader—Chas. Johnson.

MAY 19

Saddle Mt.—At this time of the year Saddle is covered with beautiful flowers. We hope for a warm day and a clear view from the top. Don't forget the date. Leave Hildebrand's at 7 A. M. Estimated cost 80c. Leader—Helen Staadt.

JUNE 9

Death Traps—The trip of the year for both old-timers and new guests. The tides are kind this year and let us sleep an extra hour. So—meet the gang at Hildebrand's at 5 A. M. sharp. Estimated cost 80c. Leader—Bill Laighton.

JUNE 23

Youngs River—Up the river about two miles are good picnic and camping grounds. Bring the family for a good time. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 A. M. Estimated cost 50c. Leader—Bee Cornilsen.

JULY 7

Crescent Beach Picnic—Fill up your lunch basket and take the whole family for a day of fun. To work up an appetite we'll play horse shoe and baseball and go bathing in the surf. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 A. M. Estimated cost 60c. Leader—Helene Zatterlow.

JULY 21

Brownsmead—How many of us have seen the country around there? Very pleasant there this time of the year. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 A. M. Estimated cost 35c. Leader—Sylvia Elliott.

AUGUST 4

Clam Dig—Even if you don't like clams it is a lot of fun digging at them. So try your luck. The early bird catches the worm. Leave Hildebrand's at 5 A. M. Estimated cost 35c. Leader—Esther Juntti.

AUGUST 18

Picnic—The details for this event will be discussed later. We have a lot of good places to go. By all means don't forget the date. Leader—Lennart Fellman.

SEPTEMBER 8

Box Canyon—This is one of the most interesting trips we have. Don't mind the rain, you'll get wet feet anyway. Leave Hildebrand's at 8 A. M. Estimated cost 25c. Leader—Chas. Erickson.

SEPTEMBER 14

Corn Roast—A moonlight hike on the beach and then top it off with roasted ears of corn and some good Angora coffee. Join the gang. Leave Hildebrand's at 6 P. M. Estimated cost 25c. Leader—Winnie Wing.

SEPTEMBER 28--29

Spirit Lake—For a long time we have heard of the beauties of the Spirit Lake region and have hoped at some time to see that section for ourselves. We believe our leader will be able to show us a week-end of real enjoyment. Leave Hildebrand's Saturday. Estimated cost $3.50. Leader—Lloyd Craft.

OCTOBER 13

Saddle Mountain—The one trip no Angora should miss. A climb in the fall has its thrills as well as in the spring and winter. Come and bring a friend. Leave Hildebrand's at 7 A. M. Estimated cost 80c. Leader—Gwen LaBarre.

OCTOBER 26--27

Hallowe'en Party and Initiation—The big social event that all Angoras anticipate. Come dressed in masquerade costume and join the fun. Members only are allowed at this event. The committee always has a good program for us. Leave Hildebrand's at 7 P. M. Saturday.

NOVEMBER 3

Sand Dunes—As we hike along on the sand dunes on Clatsop Beach we have a good view of the many lakes to the east and the ocean to the west. An easy hike. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 A. M. Estimated cost 40c. Leader—Charlotte Upham.

NOVEMBER 24

Thanksgiving Dinner—We may have another Franksgiving Day. The date will be subject to change to suit the conditions. In any event a committee will be appointed to work out the details.

DECEMBER 8

Christmas Tree Hunt—Don't you remember when you scampered along with Pa on an annual jaunt to the woods to select a tree for the living room? You'll relive those days if you accompany August and his gang. Leave Hildebrand's at 9 A. M. Estimated cost—? Leader—August Hildebrand.

DECEMBER 13

Christmas Party—"Christmas comes but once a year. . . ." Hoorah, it's here again! If you tell Santa's helpers of your coming you'll find a gift beneath the tree for you. Leader—Santa Claus.

DECEMBER 31

New Year's Party—Let's all get together and watch the old year go out and the new year come in. Games will be played and good refreshments served. Place to be selected later. Leader—Mary McCann.
